

QUICKLY FINDS PLACE IN WHITE HOUSE CIRCLE

Bride of President Introduced to Him by His Daughter and His Cousin, Miss Bones.

SHE IS ACTIVE IN CHARITY

Belongs to None of Distinct Social Sets of Capital—Lack of Knowledge of Many Details of Wedding Due to Desire to Avoid Publicity.

WASHINGTON, December 18.—Woodrow Wilson is the third President to be married during his term of office.
President Tyler was the first and President Cleveland the other. Mr. Wilson, like Mr. Tyler, was left a widower during his term. Two years later, in 1844, in New York City, he was married to Miss Julia Gardiner, who then presided at the White House functions during the first year of her husband's term of office.

Grover Cleveland's marriage to Miss Frances Folsom took place in the Blue Room of the executive mansion. It was comparatively a private affair, for the invited guests included only the cabinet members, their wives and a few friends and relatives of the couple.
President Wilson's wedding is the third in his family since he took office.
The first White House wedding of his term was that of his second daughter, Jessie Woodrow Wilson, to Francis Bones, a son of the late President.
Bones, a native of Virginia, was the son of his youngest daughter, Eleanor, to Secretary McAdoo. The President now has two grandchildren, the little son of the Boneses and the baby daughter of the McAdoos.

The President and his bride both are Virginians by birth. He was born at Staunton, fifty-nine years ago, this month, and she was born in Wythe-ville, the daughter of Judge and Mrs.
William H. Bolling, and was one child in a large family. Two sisters, Mrs.
Alexander H. Galt and Miss Bortha Bolling, and three brothers, John Han-dolph, Richard Wilmer and Julian B.
Bolling, live in Washington. Rolfe E.
Bolling, another brother, is manager of the Commercial Bank at Panama, and another, Dr. William E. Bolling, lives in Louisville, Ky. A third sister, Mrs. M.
H. Maury, lives in Anniston, Ala. The bride's family has been prominent in the history of Virginia, and she herself is a descendant of Pocahontas, the Indian chief's daughter, who married John Rolfe.

NEVER LOST INTEREST IN A WOMAN'S WORLD

Since 1899 Mrs. Galt has lived in Washington, belonging to none of the distinct social sets, but active in charity and philanthropy in her own way.
From her first husband she inherited control of a prosperous mercantile business, of which she has been accredited with now being the active head, and many tributes are paid to her ability. But activity in business, her friends say, never has diminished her interest in a woman's world. She loves flowers, books and outdoor recreations.
After the President's courtship began she took up golf and on many Saturday afternoons they were seen together on the links at some one of the country clubs about the capital, or at other times taking long motor drives over

Facts About Mrs. Galt

Born October 14, 1872, in Wythe-ville, Va.
Is direct descendant of the Indian Princess Pocahontas.

Has eight brothers and sisters.
Still retains the good looks for which she was famous in her youth.
Is charming, tactful and intelligent.

Has devoted herself to charity rather than society conquests.
Runs her late husband's jewelry store and brings a "dot" of $300,000 to the President.

Loves baseball, golf, automobiling, good books and music.
Dresses well.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S CAREER.

Born December 28, 1856, in Staunton, Va.
Spent his childhood and youth mostly in Georgia and South Carolina.

Educated in public schools, Davidson College, Princeton University, University of Virginia and John Hopkins University.

Married Helen Louise Axson, of Savannah, June 24, 1885.

Taught history and economics at Byram Manor, Westeyan and Princeton.

President of Princeton.
Elected Governor of New Jersey.
Elected President of the United States in 1912.

the Virginia hills or along the shore roads in lower Maryland. Often they took picnic luncheon from the White House on their journeys, and ate it by the roadside.

In the White House circle the bride quickly found her place. She plays the piano, sings and loves poetry, and when in the intimacy of the family the President often has read aloud his favorite poems, as in his exhortation, she is said to have been one of his most interested hearers.

eldest daughter, and Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, his cousin, are said to have drawn her into the White House circle in the early autumn of 1914. From that time she was a frequent guest at the executive mansion, and last summer spent a month as the guest of Margaret Wilson at the summer White House at Cornish, N. H. The engagement was announced on October 6, not long after the presidential party returned to Washington for the winter.

Both the President and his bride agreed not to have their wedding in the White House, but in her home near Du Pont Circle, which sometimes is called the social hub of the capital.
She lives there in a tastefully arranged house, somewhat small by comparison with the mansions which surround it.
It is not large enough for entertaining on an extended scale, and for that reason a large company was not invited to the wedding. Mr. McAdoo, the President's son-in-law, was the only member of the Cabinet included in the party.
The rest were all relatives.

The repeatedly expressed wish of the couple for a quiet wedding, unattended by any great amount of publicity, is responsible for the general lack of common knowledge of so many of the details which attend such a ceremony.
No public announcements have been made of the gifts received, and likewise there has been no announcement of the gowns and decorations. New York dressmakers have been frequently during the last few weeks at the White House and at the bride's home, and she has made one or two shopping trips out of the city to complete her trousseau.

CALLED TO UTICA

Rev. J. Winslow Clarke Asked to Return as Chaplain of House of Good Shepherd.

Rev. J. Winslow Clarke, rector of the Church of the Ascension, Highland Park, has received a call to return to the House of the Good Shepherd, Utica, N. Y., as chaplain, which charge he held for nine years before coming to Richmond. Last night he said that he had replied to the letter inviting his return and notified the vestry of his church that he had received the call, but he will not render his decision until after the holidays.

Mr. Clarke explained that the House of the Good Shepherd is a home for children, where more than 180 boys and girls are cared for.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DURHAM, N. C., December 18.— Washington and Lee University and Trinity College have arranged an intercollegiate debate here for February 26. The query is: "Resolved, That the present administration plan of increased armaments is demanded by the best interests of the United States."

Washington and Lee will debate the University of Pennsylvania on the same subject.

to-day some details of the President's courtship.

Most of the chief executive's wooing, it seems, was done on the golf links. Mrs. Galt had little knowledge of the Scottish game, of which the President is very fond, and Mr. Wilson volunteered to teach her.

While learning all about bunkers and brasses, Mrs. Galt taught the first man in the land something herself to admire her. Later the President took a postgraduate course in a subject a bit deeper than friendship. Both proved apt pupils.

As is well known, Mrs. Galt was a guest of Miss Margaret Wilson and the President at Harklenden House, Cornish, N. H., last summer. She had met the President many times before this, however. She was introduced to Mr. Wilson by his daughters, who are all three very fond of her.
